F	Forward	^o aF	This table gives Hebrew-English Parallels—not all translations, e.g. Hebrew ^o aM & Chinese Min mean 'people', not 'Mob; Hebrew Hól in Hól Mo^oeD = 'Hole in the holiday.' Hebrew R'eh = 'see.' 'Not Read.' Each pair of Parallels represents numerous examples, showing further developments of the same meanings. Thus several clothing words in Sh- in English & Russian, but not Hebrew. English X & J are represented by Tz in Hebrew & Russian.
